

25TH ANNUAL LA PALMA DAYS

NOVEMBER 14, 2009

THE "OFFICIAL VETERAN'S DAY PARADE OF ORANGE COUNTY"

On Saturday, November 14th at 10:00 a.m., the La Palma Days Parade and prestigious Band Review will feature over 200 units including junior and senior high school bands, JROTC units, veterans, military entries, celebrities, dignitaries, elected officials, local schools, clubs and organizations, businesses, the Orange County Fire Authority, and others — all parading proudly down Walker Street, from Houston to La Palma Avenue! This year our Grand Marshal is none other than Mickey Mouse. Our Community Grand Marshals are Alta Duke, Joan Lutz, and Keith Nelson, all who are long-time volunteers and original La Palma Days committee members whose little idea 25 years ago has become a cherished La Palma community event.

Once again, on the 25th Anniversary of La Palma Days, the City of La Palma is proud to have the La Palma Days Parade be designated as the "Official Veteran's Day Parade of Orange County" by proclamation from the Orange County Board of Supervisors.

1ST MARINE DIVISION BAND

The 1st Marine Division Band, based at Camp Pendleton, California, consists of 50 Marine musicians. While the primary mission of the 1st Marine Division Band is to provide musical support for military parades and ceremonies, they remain versatile to accommodate other needs. The 1st Marine Division Band was organized during World War II in the Pacific Theater of Operations in the early 1940's. Since then, 1st Marine Division Bandsmen have drawn their rifles in support of several operations, including Desert Shield, Desert Storm, Enduring Freedom, and Iraqi Freedom I and II.

BAND REVIEW JUDGING

Thirty California school bands, representing over 4,000 students from Cypress, Cerritos, Anaheim, and our own John F. Kennedy High School Shamrock Regiment Band will compete in one of the most highly respected Band Reviews in the area. The Band Review begins at 9:30 a.m. until 12 noon on Walker Street, with SCSBOA judging taking place immediately south of Bransford Street.

ACTIVITIES

A variety of NEW activities for preschool to adults will be featured at La Palma Days! Everyone will have fun while supporting local organizations at the same time. Local nonprofit groups will be sponsoring each activity in return for a portion of the activities' proceeds. Activities will include a giant Fiber Glass Slide, giant obstacle courses, Ropes Course, Pony Rides, Petting Zoo, King of the Mountain (the Blob), Midway Games and more!

Presale Activity Tickets are on sale now through November 13th at 5:00 p.m. Presale tickets may be purchased at the La Palma Recreation & Community Services offices. Buy your tickets early and take advantage of the savings. We're sorry, but presale tickets will not be sold after 5:00 p.m. on November 13th.

HISTORICAL PRESERVATION & CULTURAL AWARENESS PROJECTS

The Cultural & Historical Committee is pleased to present exhibits and displays of La Palma's history, culture and diversity through books and artifacts:

- Free temporary Henna tattoos representing the East Asian tradition
- Magnets with important City of La Palma phone numbers will be distributed
- "La Palma," a published book in the Arcadia "Images of America" book series, capturing La Palma's history will be available for sale by the La Palma Chamber of Commerce. The authors will also be on hand to sign copies of their book.

MILITARY HISTORY

The Corps of Topographical Engineers, US Army of the West, will depict life as a soldier in Early California and display unique military and medical artifacts from the 19th Century. A replica cannon will fire at 12:30 and 12:45 p.m.

VENDORS

The La Palma Days Community Festival will feature over 40 vendors. Enjoy a wide variety of tasty cuisine by sampling foods from around the world. At the same time, you will be supporting your local nonprofit organizations as they work toward their goal of providing ongoing services to our community. Take some additional time to browse and shop through the community and vendor booths, featuring products, services, as well as arts and crafts. To celebrate La Palma Days 25th Anniversary, commemorative merchandise will be available for sale.
